GOVERNMENT’S ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO CONTINUE FILING DEADLINE

Counsel for the United States moves to continue the filing deadline for its response to the defense’s brief on selective enforcement. The government’s brief is currently due on April 6, 2023. See Dkt. No. 351. The government moves to continue that date to April 12, 2023. This modification will enable the government to compose a full response to information and argument presented in the defense’s filing, which is due on April 3, 2023. However, it would not require rescheduling the selective enforcement oral argument, which the court has already set for April 24, 2023. Counsel for the defense assents to the proposed filing deadline adjustment.

Respectfully submitted,

RACHAEL S. ROLLINS
United States Attorney
